Speed Seduction: Magic or Mechanics??

From: Culver City, California
Tuesday, 2:45 P.M.

Dear Friend and Valued Reader,

Believe it or not, your old pal Ross actually has his critics. People who don't like me. People who think I shouldn't be teaching you what I'm teaching.

One of the things I hear most often from these morons is something along the likes of, "C'mon now, Ross. What you're talking about couldn't possibly work. In fact, it sounds like magic."

Now, I don't really care what these pin-heads think. But I am concerned that YOU, dear reader, understand what Speed Seduction is all about. And it certainly ISN'T magic.

Now, don't get me wrong. If you're like some of my students when they are first starting out and your dick's been drier than a leaf in the desert for years and then suddenly you're banging four or five incredibly hot women, it might seem like magic. And to someone who doesn't know what you're doing, it will either seem like magic or prostitution!!

In fact, Speed Seduction is mechanics. That means it requires a certain sequence, set of circumstances and applications in order for it to work.

Within that framework, it's massively powerful, but that framework still has to be there. Just like a super-charged, perfectly tuned, 450 horsepower, V-8 engine won't run without the oxygen to burn the fuel, Speed Seduction only works when there are certain necessary conditions.

Thankfully those conditions have nothing whatsoever to do with your looks, age, money, social status or other "externals" outside of your control.

In this issue, I'm going to review what those conditions are, and how you can use all this to massively increase the quantity and quality of your babe hunting.

Condition #1: You've Got To Be In The Right Frame Of Mind

As I've said time and again, the patterns I teach are NOT just another high tech way to beg yourself into some girl's pants. If you view them like this, then, even if you deliver them flawlessly from a technical standpoint, you are still going to get nowhere because your weak-ass, piss-ant, puss-whimp attitude will.....

...Totally Annihilate The Emotional States You Are Attempting To Create In Your Subject!

(Hey..did you notice how I'm mellowing out? I said "subject" instead of "victim". I must be getting old!)

How does this self-defeating process take place? Simple. As I have said time and again, in any area of life, if you are coming from a place of hunger, or need, or desperately trying to prove to yourself that you can win again, then you almost certainly guaranteed to fail. You'll simply push away the very thing you want and get locked into a self-perpetuating "defeat-cycle" that gets you nowhere.

If you want to be hilariously successful with Speed Seduction, then you must realize that the patterns aren't about begging. They aren't even really about tricking or misleading.

No, sir, the patterns are about being able to create such incredible states of pleasure and fun and highs for her that no one else can, such that she really WANTS to give you her sexual goodies. They're about creating states for her that no one else can.

Viewed like this, that incredible babe you want to bang isn't someone you need to fear. She's someone who's about to receive an incredible gift from you, a gift she might continue to receive IF she's smart enough and hot enough and sexy enough to give you what it takes to keep YOU coming back for more.

You see, it sure makes a damn big difference when you can look at a honey-pie and honestly think to yourself, "How good can this woman stand to feel? Let's go have fun and find out!".

Speaking of fun, another big part of being in the right frame of mind to make SS work is refusing to take it seriously. By that, I mean you take the attitude that you are experimenting, having fun, and if what you try doesn't work, you've simply polished your skills and learned something new.

Let me illustrate this by telling you about one of my favorite students, David W. David is, to put it charitably, unattractive. He's 6 foot, 270 pounds, dresses like slob on his best days, and on a scale of one to 10, 10 being a Greek god, he's a 3.

David also happens to be banging four gorgeous women, all of whom are either aerobics instructors or tri-athletes.

What made this success possible? Well to quote him, "I thought to myself, hey, since this isn't going to work, I might as well pick the best looking women in the gym for it to fail on and see what happens".

Because he didn't need to make it work, and took a relaxed, experimental attitude, he got out of his own way and is now the envy of his friends, who still don't believe him when he told them about my stuff.(Assholes)

Condition Two: Sufficient Time To Speak With Your Subject To Run A Minimum Of Two(Preferably Three) Patterns On Her

As I'm fond of saying, a lone pattern, by itself, is like a lone pirahana; nasty, but hardly deadly.

To be effective, patterns have to be run in sequences, and I strongly prefer to stick in a minimum of three(see my previous newsletter issue for a discussion of how to do this and why it is so important).

Can you do patterns strung out over a period of time if you really don't have much of a chance to talk to a woman?

Sure...but your effectiveness goes WAY down.

Look at it like this; in a boxing match you could land one solid punch per round, for fifteen rounds, but it's much ore effective to slam the guy with the fifteen punches one after another.

This is why I recommend, for example, if you're going to use Speed Seduction on a waitress that you go in at OFF hours, so she has time to talk.

Condition Three: Enough Flexibility To Get The Initial Entryway Into Her Neurology

When you start running patterns on a woman, the point is to find that initial entry into her neurology that lights her up and gets a strong response.

Sometimes this requires you to cycle through a few approaches.

As an example, I was having dinner with a friend who I hadn't seen in some time, and I was explaining to him how SS works.

Rather than continue to try to explain, I decided to demonstrate on our tasty little waitress.

I started out by telling her that I had an intuition about her, that she was a very visual person.

What was her response? Just about zero. She showed NO interest and no response. Obviously, appealing to her visual imagination was not the doorway into her mind.

I then moved to another favorite ploy and allowed her to "overhear" my staged conversation with my friend, wherein I talked to him about how women select men for different roles, but no man can give everything a woman needs.

(This will often get them talking if they have a boyfriend and aren't happy with him, which is pretty damn often).

Again, zero response. Zip. Nada. By this time, my old friend was looking more and more skeptical.

Did old Ross give up...just pack it in and quit?

Not on your life, Cedric. Next time she came by the table I mentioned the fact that I had just been reading an article about how men and women connect with each other. (Here, I was trying to get in using the emotional doorway). No luck with this approach either; perhaps she just didn't know how to read and was embarrassed by the fact.

So by this time, I figured it was time to switch strategies. Leaning back in my chair, I looked at her across the restaurant, turned on my intuition and asked myself, "What can I notice about her that has to be true that I can use to make a connection?"

What I noticed in this poor, overworked food-server's case is that she looked tired as hell. So next time she came by the table I said, "You know, you sure look like you could use a vacation. If you could imagine your ideal vacation spot, what would it be like?"

Well, mercy's sake, wouldn't you know that at point she dropped straight into trance and begin to imagine her day on the perfect beach, soaking up the sun, feeling the warm water and the cool breeze?

Of course, from there, I went straight into the blow job pattern, talking about how interesting it was to me how people connect with their fantasies and desires and day dreams and about how I was just reading an article about the difference between compulsions and anticipation...

Did she respond strongly to this? Only with a super-doggie dinner bowl look that my Dalmatians couldn't have produced during a hunger-strike!(My Dalmatians would NEVER have gone on a hunger-strike!)

Now what is the point of this story? Just that I wouldn't have been able to do this if she had been terribly busy or if I had been in hurry and if I didn't have the ability/flexibility to keep right on going when the first three approaches I tried fell flatter than a pre-pubescent girl's chest.

Put even more simply: it worked because there was time to talk and I knew how to keep going.

So look; if you're having some trouble with your Speed Seduction skills, chances are it's due to a problem with one of these three vital conditions. Pull yourself up short, take a breather and re-assess what you've been doing. If you've been putting yourself in situations that are stacked against you,(e.g., the girl's always too busy to talk, or your attitude is just plain fucked) re-arrange things so the odds are more in your favor. You'll find SS still yields results for you lightyears beyond anything else out there.

After all, David W. has only been able to figure out how to make it work for him in the gym. He still can't pick up a girl on the street to save his life. But with four firm, young, perfect-bodied athletic women to console him as they buck and writhe like mad, giving him their sexual all, I don't feel too sorry for him.

Go thou and do likewise.

Ross,

It's been a while since I last e-mailed you as regards to sharing Speed Seduction ideas. This idea should prove interesting.

What follows is a powerful seduction story on similar lines to your Discovery Channel pattern. The great thing is that in England people like talking about the weather (a pretty boring subject matter) but this can be spiced up.

You: Well where I come from we have amazing thunderstorms at this time of year - not just ordinary ones. Have you experienced the type which REALLY GRABS YOUR ATTENTION.

Her: Oh yes we get them sometimes.

You: Do you find it so moving when you are busy outside and the atmosphere FEELS ELECTRIC and suddenly everything stops [pause]. Then it starts to rain that type of rain that is WARM AND COMFORTABLE. Next you hear the faint rumbling which gets closer [move closer] and you know it's GOING TO BE BIG [having you hands on your thighs and moving them upwards and outwards is better than pointing at your gonads!].

You: Its now when you FEEL LIKE GOING INSIDE [gesture your finger tips towards her chest] when you can experience your senses being stimulated by its mighty power. Have you ever noticed that the storm's power is TRYING TO COMMUNICATE A MESSAGE TO YOU?

Her: Yeah, it can be scary.

You: Yes, although its power is exciting, inside you feel perfectly safe. Often these storms do last and keep the momentum going until finally when it finishes you are left with this calm and a wonderful experience which you can reflect on for years to come.

I amaze myself sometimes, Ross. I think there seems to be 2 (or maybe 3 with the pause) subtle ways of getting her attention and 1 sneaky method of introducing a state with this pattern. What do you think?

Dear Andrew,

Wow! I think you Brits are too damn clever. How the hell did we slap your brains out and kick your ass in two wars?

Actually, this is a damn good pattern that all you Speed Seduction patterns should pay careful attention to. He's layering in/combining descriptions of intense body feelings, emotional states and he's also throwing in some very good sexual metaphor while he's at it.

As I've said before in my seminars and Home Study Courses (plug, plug, plug), if you can combine body sensations/emotional feelings/sexual stuff all at once, it completely overloads and lights up her neurology to the point where she just can't resist it.

She HAS to get turned on as part of the overall arousal response with all of her neurons firing every which way.

Good job, Andrew, and an extra ration of Spam, egg, sausage and Spam for you!

Dear Ross:

No, I'm not gay, I love you for teaching me this masterpiece called speed seduction. I've started to really dig in to your speed seduction stuff and its REALLY WORKING BEYOND MY EXPECTATIONS even though I have only used the patterns on the phone.

It still feels really strange saying this stuff but the women I use it with listen very intently. I can feel them going into a trance.

If I do patterns with a woman on the phone, what patterns are left to do when I meet her(that are not sexual)? Could the patterns be repeated with out her saying "hey, we've been through this before"?

I sometimes feel I should be running patterns continuously throughout the meeting. Is it necessary or could I simply do a short connection pattern when I first meet a woman? Will this have long lasting effects as I justbe myself"?

Right now I feel more comfortable just getting an intense connection going between me and the girl before I try the sexual stuff out, but I'm having a ball using the connection patterns which I think will get me laid in and of itself.

Dear Michael,

You ask some excellent questions, dude. Before I answer them, congratulations on practicing the patterns in a way that feels comfortable for you. I highly recommend phone practice as a way to initially get comfortable with this stuff, and I myself continue to make "phone work" an integral part of my approach to SS. I find women are actually more susceptible on the phone, as being alone makes them feel more secure and comfortable as they think I can't tell how they're responding.

Now to your interrogatories! First, if you do patterns well enough on the phone, you won't have to do much when you meet her; in fact, you may not even have to meet her at all in the traditional sense! She may get so hot and bothered she'll want to pop round to your place and ride your trouser snake til the crack of dawn.

That sure would beat a poke in the eye, unless you don't know what she looks like, in which case I advise caution.

In any case, if you've already got her well opened up and lubed on the phone, why not elicit her values in a relationship when you meet her in person? She'll be well into already feeling very connected to you, thanks to your excellent phone work, and you can then simply repeat her values back to her and close the deal very rapidly after that.

Sure, eliciting values IS a pattern, but it doesn't sound like one, doesn't require tone shifts or pattern type language, allows you to sound entirely conversational, and, as an added bonus, tells you exactly how to behave if you really do want to continue seeing her in any type of long term "r..re..re..rrrr..re".

Well, you know what I mean. I just can't say the "r" word without kinda choking. But this way you don't even have to use another language pattern ever again if you don't want to; just behave according to the rules and values she reveals and you're home free.

Now, having praised you so far, one word of caution: not ALL girls respond to "connection" patterns. Some girls, for whatever reasons, are just NOT open to emotions; they are however quite open to the sexual stuff. I know this contradicts what I originally taught about ALWAYS doing the connection stuff first, but some women are just shut down to emotions at various times in their lives for whatever reasons.

Cycle through different approaches as I explain in this issue of the newsletter, see what gets the response, and go from there!

Good luck!.

Hi Ross,

I just listened to your "slut report", which is pretty ingenious. See, I'm a college boy, and I just wanted to tell you that it is a must for any college guy.

Anyways, here are just a few tips I thought of and tried: (1) See, I go to a college that is infamous for girls who are dogs....there are only a few sexy hunnies (I knew I should have gone to Cali.) so in order to avoid the ugly bitches, just look in the yearbook/facebook.

Okay, now you have her name....then go to your handy-dandy campus phone book (which should be free at the campus center, library, or admissions office) and look up her name. Presto! you got your babe.

Later,
LadyKiller

P.S. How come there aren't any more "get laid" newsletters on the web?

I found out that a lot of servers DON'T carry the speed seduction newsgroup; even the .edu servers, which carry nearly "everything!"

Dear L.K.

Geez. Just when I thought I had reached the very pinnacle of sliminess and sleaze, some young up-start comes along and knocks me off my perch!
Is there no end to how low you guys will sink?

Actually, I salute your cleverness. As to your other questions/comments:

1. I've been very busy creating new products/material.
2. Leave it to the powers that be on the Internet, who scream out of one side of their mouths about government censorship, but then proceed to do everything they can to knock discussion of my ideas right off the Net.

Well fuck 'em! Cause now technology has come to the rescue for all those of you who have access to the World Wide Web and Java. We've created a live, Speed Seduction Chat Room link on our web site at <http://www.seduction.com>.

Just jump over to our home page, click on hot links. Then click on the Speed Seduction Chat Room link. You'll then be in live chat with other SS fanatics, and I'm on there 2 to 3 nights a week around 11PM Pacific Standard Time! Talk to me live, no charge!

Ross's Plug Corner

Hey! We have two seminars coming up; a special, one-day, update seminar in Palo Alto, California, Saturday, September 27 and our ONE WEEK, transformational Bahamas seminar, featuring me and my team of hand-picked, world class trainers! For more info, call Yates at 703-791-6421.

Peace and piece,

Ross
